Thanks for your interest in helping to create and foster healthy marriages within the Crossroads community. Whether you're a newlywed, a seasoned veteran or somewhere in between, we encourage you to prayerfully consider building into other couples while encouraging, strengthening and protecting your own marriage in the process.

Our focus is simple—to provide couples with the biblical principles that will enable them to build a Christ-centered marriage. Our desire is to see marriages grow and reflect the person of Jesus Christ.

Remember: strong marriages mean strong, healthy families, churches and communities.

If you would like to share your gifts and talents to help build into a couple's marriage, please fill out the information below and email to marriage@crossroads.net and someone from our team will contact you.
